

Hess Named to Dow Jones Sustainability Index and Wall Street Journal's List of Top 250 Best Managed Companies

01/06/2025

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 6, 2025-- Hess Corporation (NYSE: HES) has earned a place on the prestigious Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI) North America for the 15th consecutive year and for the third time has been included in the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index (DJSI World), which highlights global sustainability leaders identified by S&P Global through its Corporate Sustainability Assessment. Only the most sustainable companies are considered each year for DJSI membership. This year, Hess is the only North American oil and gas producer listed on DJSI World and one of only four oil and gas companies included in DJSI North America.

In addition, Hess has been named to the Wall Street Journal's annual ranking of the Top 250 Best Managed Companies of 2024 and ranked 8th overall for social responsibility. The annual ranking measures corporate management effectiveness in five areas -- customer satisfaction, employee engagement and development, innovation, social responsibility and financial strength -- based on an analysis of 35 data inputs provided by 16 third-party sources. The full list and methodology are available here.

"We are honored to continue to be recognized for our strong sustainability performance and commitment to social responsibility," said Alex Sagebien, Vice President, Environment, Health and Safety.

Hess Corporation is a leading global independent energy company engaged in the exploration and production of crude oil and natural gas. For more information about sustainability at Hess, including annual Sustainability Reports, please visit www.hess.com/sustainability.
